Claim Objections

Claim 10 is objected to because of the following informalities: in line 5, "an bolt head portion" should be --a bolt head portion--. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 11 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Each of claims 11 and 12 depend from claims which have been canceled. The claims were examined as best understood.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 10-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yang (US 5,795,193). Yang discloses a device for attaching a bolt to a power distribution box comprising a screw (18), power distribution box (10) intended for use in an automobile and a metallic part (50). The metallic part is U-shaped (see Fig. 3) and includes a pair of legs (58) joined by a cross member (60) having a hole (62) which receives the threaded portion of a bolt (72, see Fig. 4) and each of the legs engage a flat face of the bolt head (74, see Fig. 4). The length of the legs being greater than the thickness of the head and the legs have a plurality of detention (70) to engage the box.

Response to Remarks

Applicant's arguments have been considered and in responding thereto, applicant is first reminded that the claims are required to be given there broadest reasonable interpretation.

As understood, applicant argues that the cited reference (presumably Yang) does not disclose the method of mounting a bolt head to a power distribution box or the use of detentions on the edge of the legs. In response, the examiner disagrees because Yang does in fact disclose a method of mounting a bolt head (see 18) to a power distribution box (see 10) as best seen in Fig. 4 including detentions (see 70). It should be recognized that the claims do not preclude the inclusion or use of the bus bar; also that the claims do not require the detentions to be on the edges nor to be formed as wing-like structures.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
